SPRING/SUMMER 2023

LOVELY LEWES

I have lived in Lewes just about all of my life. I've always known this place was something special and unique. But this Spring of 2023 has been sublime. The weather has been ideal, the color in the tulips seems more vibrant, and there's an energy in our picturesque downtown streets that's one of hope and rejuvenation that feels new. The town that we have seen evolve in so many ways over the years still remains nothing short of a setting out of a great American novel. At least that's how I'm especially feeling this year. So, I wanted to dedicate this newsletter to Lewes: why we love it and why you will too.

Lewes is often written about for its deep history as a port during the war and Lewes has many wonderful sites to take in all that history. Among the many, of course, The Lewes Historical Society Campus on Shipcarpenter Street, as well as the Zwaanendael Museum, The Cannonball House, and the Ryves Holt House. If you're up early in Lewes on a Saturday morning during the spring/summer season, then you're most likely grabbing your pup for a walk down to Blockhouse Pond for the Historic Lewes Farmer's Market. You'll not only find the best locally grown produce, fresh seafood or homemade baked goods, but you'll probably run into a few local friends and neighbors along the way. If you still need a few things for your backyard BBQ, don't forget to stop at Lloyd's Market. Lloyd's is my favorite local grocer for EVERYTHING. Spend the rest of your day strolling along the beautiful CanalFront Park where you can gaze at the iconic Lightship Overfalls, play a game of pickle ball or set your boat out to sea. Or take in the botanical beauty all around Lewes that's provided by the wonderful and award-winning volunteers with Lewes in Bloom!

When you're looking for that great dinner spot, Historic Lewes's newest restaurant, the Lewes Oyster House has become the most popular place in town. From the stellar cocktails and seafood to the appealing aesthetic, this is sure to be a Second Street staple for years to come.

Even the iconic Nicola's Pizza moved to Lewes last year! After more than 50 years in their historic locations in Rehoboth Beach, Nicola's now calls Lewes "home."

LEWES REAL ESTATE BLOOM

Inventory in Lewes still remains generally low, but we've seen an upswing over the Spring months which I suspect will continue throughout the summer. For those looking to buy here in Lewes, but are still skeptical because of the higher interest rates, we have some good news! The Lee Ann Wilkinson Group and BHHS/PenFed Realty work closely with fantastic local and national mortgage brokers, whom we not only know and trust, but are also able to offer very competitive rates - often nearly an entire point lower than competitors. It's never a bad time to start building equity in a home - so let us help you find that home in Lewes!

In 2016, the Cape Gazette published a centuries old article from Harper's Weekly's Sept. 29, 1877 edition. It stated, "...the inhabitants of the little town of Lewes, which lies on the beautiful Delaware Bay, turn out in force for the business of 'croker' fishing ... The inhabitants are mostly fishermen - salty and tarry toilers of the sea; and the town will probably always remain quiet and old-fashioned." While our beloved Lewes certainly has widened from primarily fisherman, "quiet and old fashioned," we've remained.
